Hon. Gen. Vernon Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Sir,

Well, you asked to be kept informed of my progress in my endeavor to enter the agency — so now you must endure another of my "not-so-easy-to-read" letters!

On 29 Jan 76 I went to Philadelphia for an interview with [redacted] He seemed to be a very pleasant and informed person and I found him very easy to talk to. I feel that this interview went quite well. He gave me a pile of forms to fill out and an appointment ticket to take a test at the end of February. On 28 Feb. I took this battery of tests and my head is still spinning!

Of course, the test was only two days ago but I thought you would like to know how it was going.

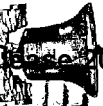

I hope to be seeing you soon as a member of the Agency - until then, if you need a civilian aide with military experience - I'm available!

I hope things are well with you and I thank you for your support.
Sincerely
